

Discover England

From London to the English Countryside

Sept. 3 – 13 2025

Day 1: Journey begins

Join your Daniel's Tour Guides at the Daniel's Tour Depot in Lula, GA for transport to the Atlanta airport for an evening non-stop flight to London.

Day 2: Arrival in London

Start your adventure upon your lunchtime arrival in London where the group will be joined by Daniel's Associate, International Tour Guide - Jack Bauman. Set out on a tour of the city that takes you through the heart of London. You'll pass iconic spots like Piccadilly Circus, buzzing with neon lights and bustling energy, and Trafalgar Square, home to Nelson's Column and surrounded by galleries and historic statues. Cruise through Covent Garden with its lively street performers, admire the majestic dome of St. Paul's Cathedral for a tour. After having some lunch and soaking in the sights, check into your centrally located hotel next to Hyde Park to unwind, and settle in before enjoying a delicious welcome dinner at a local restaurant.

Day 3: Westminster Abbey and Tower of London

Today kicks off with a visit to one of London's most historic landmarks, Westminster Abbey, where royals have been crowned and married for centuries. You'll get a sense of Britain's rich history as you walk through its grand halls. Afterward, head to the Tower of London, where you'll hear tales of kings, queens, and even the infamous ravens that guard the tower. Don't miss the dazzling Crown Jewels! Cap off the day with dinner at a cozy local pub, where you can chat about the day's discoveries over traditional British fare.

Day 4: Lesser-Known London

Step off the beaten path today with a visit to some of London's hidden gems. Start at Temple Church, a serene and ancient site tied to the Knights Templar, before heading to The Monument, a towering reminder of the Great Fire of London. From there, stroll across the river to Southwark and wander through the bustling Borough Market, where you can sample a variety of foods from local and international vendors. The rest of the day is yours to explore more of London at your leisure or enjoy dinner at one of the many charming eateries in the area.

Day 5: Windsor and Hampton Court Tour

Venture outside the city today to explore two of England's most iconic palaces. First, visit Windsor Castle, the weekend home of the royals, where you'll tour the stately rooms and gardens, and perhaps even catch a glimpse of the Changing of the Guard. Next, head to Hampton Court Palace, a stunning Tudor estate where Henry VIII once lived. Wander through its vast gardens and try not to get lost in the maze! In the evening, enjoy a relaxing dinner cruise on the River Thames, gliding past illuminated landmarks as you enjoy fine dining with a view.

Day 6: Free Day in London

With the entire day free and with the help of your International Tour Guide, you can design your own path today. Enjoy souvenir shopping, visit the British Museum to marvel at ancient artifacts or explore the vibrant streets of Soho. Alternatively, take an optional excursion to Highclere Castle – famous as Downton Abbey. In the evening, gather for a delightful dinner at a local restaurant before enjoying a performance of one of London's top Broadway musicals—an unforgettable way to end your time in the city!

Day 7: Travel to Bath via Blenheim Palace and Oxford

Today you'll leave London behind as you travel west toward Bath. En route, stop at Blenheim Palace, the birthplace of Winston Churchill and a magnificent example of English Baroque architecture. After exploring its impressive rooms and manicured gardens, continue to Oxford, where you can walk in the footsteps of famous scholars. Upon arriving in Bath, check into your hotel and unwind before heading out for dinner at a charming local restaurant.

Day 8: Full Day in Bath

Spend the day exploring the beautiful city of Bath, known for its Georgian architecture and Roman history. A local guide will take you through the highlights, including a tour of the well-preserved Roman Baths, where you can imagine ancient Romans soaking in the thermal waters. Afterward, enjoy a quintessentially British experience with afternoon tea at the elegant Pump Room, a perfect spot to relax and people-watch. The evening is yours to explore, so you can choose a local spot for dinner or enjoy a quiet evening stroll through Bath's atmospheric streets.

Day 9: Cotswolds

Today, you'll journey into the idyllic English countryside for a full-day tour of the Cotswolds. Famous for its rolling hills and picture-perfect villages, this region is the epitome of rural charm. Stop in quaint towns like Bourton-on-the-Water and Stow-on-the-Wold, where you can browse local shops or enjoy a traditional high tea in a cozy tea room. After a day of scenic beauty, head back to Bath for dinner at a traditional pub, reflecting on the tranquility of the Cotswolds.

Day 10: Free Day in Bath

On your final full day, enjoy the freedom to explore Bath at your own pace. You might choose to visit the Jane Austen Centre, take a relaxing boat ride along the River Avon, or simply meander through the city's lovely parks and gardens. Alternatively, you can take an optional excursion to Stonehenge. In the evening, gather for a memorable farewell dinner with your travel companions, celebrating the wonderful memories made during your trip.

Day 11: Departure from London Heathrow

After a wonderful journey, it's time to say goodbye to the charm of England as we make our way back to London and Heathrow Airport for our afternoon return non-stop flight home. As you make the journey home, reflect on the amazing memories and experiences from your England adventure!
