Cruise Overview

Join Daniel's on this roundtrip tour from North Georgia as we explore the Pacific Northwest on a stunning Tulip Festival Cruise aboard American Cruise Line's small ship, the American Constitution. Sail through the Puget Sound & San Juan Islands with a highlight stop at the Skagit Valley Tulip Festival – The largest in North America featuring tens of millions of vibrant tulips. The incredible Cascade and Olympic Mountains converge with the serene waters of Puget Sound, creating a mesmerizing landscape dotted with the enchanting San Juan Islands. Set sail on an unforgettable journey of exploration aboard the newest and most sophisticated small ships in the region.

Cruise in ultimate comfort as you immerse yourself in the awe-inspiring beauty while spotting an array of remarkable wildlife, including the iconic orcas, majestic gray whales, soaring bald eagles, and playful harbor seals that call the Salish Sea home. Indulge in the finest regional cuisine, freshly prepared with locally sourced ingredients, and enjoy vibrant local entertainment, all while surrounded by unparalleled natural beauty. Venture ashore on meticulously crafted expeditions, some are complimentary, and some are optional for an additional fee. Take an optional excursion exploring the manicured pathways of Butchart Gardens adorned with a kaleidoscope of blooms, or an awe-inspiring optional whale watching cruise. A team of onboard historians and indigenous guides will bring this region—and its history—to life as there's a story around every bend. Learn more about the cultural legacies of the Norwegians and Suquamish tribe. From the comfort of your private stateroom, adorned with panoramic vistas, taste the flavors of the region with exquisite wines sourced from local vineyards, all while keeping a vigilant eye out for the legendary "Spirit," the Orca whale embraced by American Cruise Lines since its inaugural season on Puget Sound.

This cruise route is in the U.S.A. You will need a valid Passport if you take the optional daytime excursion to Victoria Island in British Columbia, Canada.
